Unfair allegations
Jenny Carter, Adelaide
This refers to the letter by David Hough titled "Ganv thum maro?" in your issue of November 15. Hough is an armchair expert on Goa, and unfortunately he is unable to control his mouth from speaking falsely about the Goa State Government.
For the record, the General Manager of the Goa State Electricity Board has written to the Goa State Government that there is a 25 per cent reduction in the consumption of electricity by the consumer from 2012 to 2013. Hough’s allegations are false and should be corrected.

I want to thank both the newspapers, the Goa Telegraph and The New Indian Express, for having published this letter. It is a sad state of affairs that there is a lack of interest in public matters in this part of our state. We need an awakening.

CONGRESS SYMPATRY
P. P. Patil,

Rehabilitating illegals
All Goa needs to support the people of Malvai who were forcibly driven out of their villages by Congress leaders to make them vote for the Congress. Congress is the party responsible for the hardships faced by the people of Malvai. Congress is the party responsible for the illegal occupation of land by Congress leaders.

Congress sympathy
P. P. Patil,

Malvan people are suffering under the Congress Party.
